VANCOUVER INTERNATIONAL PRIVACY & SECURITY SUMMIT

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

Reboot Communications Ltd. and ISACA Vancouver are pleased to announce the first inaugural Vancouver International Privacy & Security Summit, May 5 - 7, 2021. This three-day summit will be fully delivered on a virtual platform offering a digital-first experience.

Innovation and disruptive technologies are transforming every industry around the globe. What effects will these technologies and innovation have on our privacy and security?

We are at the forefront of the “Fourth Industrial Revolution” that will fundamentally alter the way we work, live and play as we accelerate the move towards digital platforms. Leaders from all sectors are forced to examine the way they do business and deliver public sector services, by understanding the changing environment, challenges and assumptions, including relentless and continuous innovation.

International subject matter experts from government, private sector, and academia will discuss the major impacts of how Artificial Intelligence, Cloud Computing, Cybersecurity, Big Data, E-Commerce, Bioethics, Facial Recognition, Data Governance and Innovation, will shape our future.

OUR AUDIENCE

- Global Policy Makers and Regulators
- C-Level Executives from Public and Private Sector
- Innovators and Data Scientists
- Technical Influencers, Managers and Directors
